FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

VIRGINIA HISPANICS TO ENDORSE MCCAIN FOR PRESIDENT
Local Latino Leaders Voice their Support for McCain-Palin Ticket in Presidential Race

Alexandria, Virginia – The Republican National Hispanic Assembly of Virginia in cooperation with Latinas for McCain, Hispanic Veteran’s for McCain, and local Hispanic leaders will be gathering on Friday September 12th at 3:00PM at the Towers Club located at 8000 Tower’s Crescent Drive, #1700, Vienna, Virginia near Tyson Corners for an official press conference. The organizations have created a coalition to work together between now and November 4th to support Senator McCain for President and Governor Palin for Vice President. Both press and media are invited to participate in this announcement.

RNHA National Chairman, Danny Vargas, said “The Republican ticket of Senator McCain and Governor Palin embodies the shared values between Hispanics and Republicans—Family, Faith, Freedom and Opportunity. The U.S. Hispanic vote will play a pivotal role in this year’s election in key battleground states like Virginia, so it is vital that Hispanics get involved, get informed and make a difference with their vote in November.”

Remarks will be given by organization and key Hispanic community leaders. In addition, the opportunity for questions and answers will be provided to the press.

The mission of the RNHA of Virginia to build a membership organization to foster the principles of the Republican Party in the Hispanic community; to increase the number of Hispanic Republican elected officials and to promote and encourage civic participation.
